beast's head was down. He was running away. Like a flash the whole picture pho-

With a suddenness that threw the reform and almost choked our teeth down

The forward people rushed out. The

"Did you see it? What was it? A dog?"

"I could feel the jolt. Isn't it awful?"

-too easily, I thought for an instant.

Both were half way on the rails.

bridle and led off his little pet.

man, and said some quiet sentences that made his face glow. I felt limp. Some of the others felt the same way, judging from the signs of relaxation and the spasmodic efforts at conversation. For deliverances from "battle, murder and sudden death" this came us close as anything I

If I were a man and did not have to fuse on what may be expected. Foreign visit-in and need entertaining until one's head swims, thinking of the dinner-ordering, bertini must attend to and which mean so much for the pleasure of St. Louis in ex-guests in their enjoyment and apprecia-

Take the recent visit of Marconi, for rear passengers craned their necks.

"Great heavens! He's under!"

tographed itself on my brain.

Then something happened.

Car No. 204 stopped.

the little drug store.

be under the wheels."

quietly swooned.

back into the car.

alive and safe.

ever want to see,

cent of the price.

tion thereof.

form.

The boy, hatless, his eyes wide and staring, his face ghastly in its fright, was being borne to certain death and he house Ciub and the Log Cabin; one luncheon, just where I forgot, only the menu had to be planned, you know, and carriages provided, the company assorted, and maining standers out onto the rear plata lot of other details. Congenial society The Gerardi girls, earnest German had to be gathered together, and everyour throats, we brought up close beside body knows that is no child's play in late David R. Francis, Doctor John Green, summer, with everybody out of town, who never missed a single performance Mr. Albertini sent out twenty-five invita- last year at the Fourteenth Street Theations and thought himself lucky to get ter; the Washington Fischels, including,

Two women screamed. The stout lady twelve acceptances. in black put her hand to her heart and so won't come over very soon, if at all, Taussigs, Frederick W. Lehmann, Doctor bury; but people of such high degree nev-"Man, it's a boy on a horse, and he must er give much notice and they always require, and the World's Fair deems it. necessary, as indeed it is, that they shall | World's Fair: Doctor Henry Schwartz, Everybody crowded off the front piatbe entertained with the best we have. There will be some original and pleas-Motorman No. 584 stood stock still and jested his hand easily on the brake lever holds into good working order, and set The boy's all right. He's had the narout to return some of the hospitality, as rowest escape of his life, though, I'll bet," they will undoubtedly think incumbent on said the gray-whiskered banker, stepping them to do. The Chinese tea parties ought to be great fun, and the German Conductor, two policemen and the pas-"Kaffee Klatches" quite as much so I sengers surrounded the fender. They picked up the small, curly-haired lad, and they righted his tiny beast. Both were fear, for such dignitaries. The Germans "Closest call I ever saw," said one man. have their house already and the Bra-"I consider that the finest piece of work I ever saw a motorman do," said another, in tones of warm masculine appreciation. secretaries are now here at the Planters attending to such details.

"He's game. Look at that!" The boy If eligible young lawyers continue to anstarted to scramble up the bank. A ponounce their respective marriages and enheeman held his saddle, pointing to the gagements with the rapidity that this animal's foreleg, which was cut and bleedmonth has developed, one may be led to ing slightly. The boy jumped off, took the expect anything before October 1, even engraved cards from Henry T. Kent and Then we all piled back into the car. Edward Robert. Several men shook hands with the motor-

I note that Edwin S. Puller's marriage announcement, which includes Miss Mathilde Anderson, was followed very shortly by that of Stanley D. Pearce and a certain Miss McCarthy of Memphis, while rumore of matrimony concerning William T. Jones, Charles Plummer, and I can't begin to enumerate the rest, float persistently on the autumn air.

with veils and hatpins I should take off The marriage of Miss Amy Ziegier to my hat to that magnificent airbrake-in Richard H. Johnson, Jr., nephew of exhands of Motorman F. Bennett. It Governor Johnson, will be an event of works. It cost $300, and it's worth every September 30, the same date for the Shewell-Lucas and Waish-Geraghty wed-These are busy days for Mr. Diaz-Albertini. And they are not really a patch Students of German and the aristocratic German circles of town are taking ors will from this time henceforth until much interest in the forthcoming plans the Fair is opened, and afterward, flock of the German theater, which, as you probably know, will hold forth at the Odeon this winter, the opening date bethe plans for functions and the thousand ing early in October, I believe. and one little hospitalities which Mr. Al-

Farces and comedies will be the usual Sunday evening attraction, but on Thursday evenings, which is to be the tending courtestes and no less for her especial night reserved for students, German-Americans and society in general, the newest dramas in the German lanexample. He telegraphed he would be guage will be presented; also several here, about six or eight hours before his which have been heard in English at the He stayed one day and two various theaters during the last year. nights. He was kept busy every moment Sudermann's "Joy of Living." in which of that time, and Mr. Albertini had to Mrs. Patrick Campbell is thrillfully resee to it all. Two dinners, both of which | membered, is one of the latter. The company, I am told, is to be excellent this

Who will marry Mr Bichard Marshall Jognson

Jr in late September

Ever so many prominent persons interested in German have secured boxes for Thursday nights during the season. students, are among these. Mayor Wells, of course. Miss Edna Fischel, and her Sir Thomas Lipton is ill in Chicago and fiance, Doctor George Gelihorn; the with the Earl and Countess of Shaftes- Tuholske and Doctor Jonas, the Gundelachs and the Ehlermanns, Adolphus Busch, John Schroers, Doctor Theodore Commissioner General of the Lewald. Charles Wulfing, Charles Nagel, August Busch, Charles F. Gallenkamp, Louis ant functions, I fancy, when the various Stockstrom, Charles Teichman, George commissioners, resident, get their house. Engelman, the Heroids and scores of others will be "among those present." The College Club is beginning to think of winter plans. Miss Genevieve Knapp, the president, is still in the East, but with her return soon affairs in the cory fondly trust that they won't all think their rooms at the Conservatorium will begin duty done with some stiff and formal big to hum. Membership is now about 166. receptions. Little parties are so much Dues are to be raised from $2 to $5, I benicer, but somewhat out of the question, I lieve, and there is some conversation as to the advisability of taking a flat this winter, so that more entertaining can be zilian Commissioner, M. Souza Aguiar, is done and in a more convenient way. The shortly to arrange for housekeeping. His approaching Fair makes it incumbent to hold out the latch key to many visiting college girls this next year, and the club, ecordingly, wants to be prepared SERENA LAMB.

WEDDINGS.

Electrollers, 29 per cent discount, at Mermod & Jaccard's.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce Leffingweil of the Usona Hotel of the engagement of their daughter, Mary Galt to Wallace C. Culver of No. 388 Maple avenue. The wedding will take place in the latter part of October. Miss Leffingwell is a recent resident of St. Louis. She came from Chicago, where, during the past two years, she lived with her parents at the Hyde Park Hotel. She is a graduate of Harcourt Seminary, Gambler, O. Mr. Wallace C. Culver is engaged in bier, O.

Mr. Wallace C. Culver is engaged in business with his father, William Wallace Culver, and is a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in St. Louiz.

The marriage of Miss Marian Kaiser to Mr. Charles A. Kaub took place Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the Reverend J. J. Pink officiating. Only the immediate family was present. Miss Johanna Kaub, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor, and Mra. Max Gottschalk acted as best man. The bride was attired in white peau de sole, with masses of white lace. The maid of honor wore white creps de Chine, vith a large white picture hat. After the ceremony the young couple left for the East, and will be at home to their friends after October 1 at No. 2712 Armand street.

of interest to society in St. Louis is that of the engagement of Miss Nora S. Classon, daughter of Mrs. Constance Classon, to Mr. Arthur G. Weldman. The young people are at Atlantic City. The wedding has been fixed for next month.

Marble Statuary, 29 per cent discount, at Mermod & Jaccard's.

A pretty wedding of last Tuesday after-noon was that of Mr. Wm. P. Fitzgerald of No. 296 Thomas street, and Miss Kathryn F. Devine, daughter of Mr. Eugene Devine, of No. 134 Temple place. The bride wore a gown of white satin granite trimmed in chiffon, long bridal vell, and carried a bonquet of bride roses. Miss Margaret Devine attended her sister as bridesmaid. Mr. Thomas D. Flaherty was best man.

A large reception and dinner at the bride's home followed the ceremony, which was held in St. Rose's Church, the Reverend Father McGlynn, officiating. After a Southern trip the couple will be at home to their friends Tuesdays at No. 281 Sheridan syeme.

Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Lo-

The marriage of Miss Elia R. Anshutz daughter of Mrs. S. E. and the late Chris Anshutz, to Mr. Arnot M. Loop of San Diego. Chi. took place on Thursday, 8 p. m. September H. at the Centenary Methodist Church cett the Tenada Methodist Church Cett odist Church, only the immediate friends of the family being present. Mr. and Mrs. Loop have gone for an extended trip of the South and West.

The marriage of Miss Clara Brune to Mr. Louis Hinrichs will take place on September 3.

Through sleeping-cars, St. Louis to Bos-on, every day in the year, via Big Four. The marriage of Miss Mary Heiniz and Martin Rott took place last Sunday aftermoon at 3 o'clock in the Evangelical Church at Aitheim, St. Louis County. The oeremony was performed by the Reverend F. Bauer. The bride is a cousin of County Clerk John Ruhl and the bridegroom a nephew of Judge Fred L. Kerth. The bridesmalds were Misses Emma Heintz, Ela Rott and Clara Heimburger and the groomsmen Frederick Rott, George Kerth

Fine Diamonds-Mermod & Jaccard's.

and Otto Heintz.

Frederick Rott, George Kerth

Miss Madis Patricia Kelly daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, No. 1835 Union boulevard, and John H. Fotts were married at J.p. in last Thursday at the residence of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend P. J. O'Rourke, pastor of St. Mark's Church. Miss Elvia Potts was bridesmald and Eugene Kelly best man. Helatives of the bridal couple only were present. Mr. Potts is wire chief of Forest station of the Bell Telephone Company.

Miss Duffner's millinery opening Sep ber 24. Vandeventer and Olive. P see beautiful imported novelties.

Miss Geneviere Dillon, daughter of Miss Geneviere Dison, daughter of the late John Dillon, who has been traveling abroad for several months, will marry Mr. Henry Beadel, Jr. of New York, on September 25, the ceremony taking place at Lucerne, Switzerland, very quietly. The bridegroom elect is a son of Mr. and The bridegroom elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beadel of New York, and has lately been studying at the Beaux Aris in Paris, winning several honors. He will continue his studies there after marriage, and, therefore, will not bring his bride to her native land for some time.

SOCIAL CLUBS.

Wedding Invitations-Mermod & Jac-

The I. T. Society opened for the season with a smoker given on last Monday evening at their ball. Compton and Shenandoah avenues. The event proved a sucess, about seventy-five young men, rep resenting all parts of the city, being present. The following programme was rendered: Monologue, Guy Garstang; essay on eggs, R. T. Crecelius; debate, "Resolved That St. Louis has a police force," affirmative, C. T. Stoetter, O. B. Blanke; negative, E. A. Hafferkamp, D. C. Sachse; decided in favor of the negative, Music, mandolin club; various paradies, C. P. Van Grasfelland; song and monologue, B. J. Branson. Branson.

Refreshments were served at about 18:45

n. Among those present were:

B. J. Branson, James T. Carsey, C. T. Stoetter, E. C. Miller, John Hansworth, W. H. Elbring, W. P. Voita, A. M. Obrecht, George Anderson, Ewald Schmidt, Warren Raub.

land, F. R. Meyer, Jr.; Walter C. Lea, H. P. Gautier, Percy J. McAuliff, Benjamin J. Pickup, H. Chase, William W. Straus, Furence Meyers Eugene Meyers,
Joseph L. McCarrot
Alvin G. Acton,
Charles Griesmeler,
W. Heidmann,
F. Schultt,
W. Krebs,
R. Zeppenfeld,
Fred Blanke,
H. W. Mauch,

A. Hafferkemp, P. Van Graafelland, O. B. Blanke, J. W. Bentley, James Garstang, Ed Flohr.

An informal dance was given by Miss Hazel Dell Willing at her home on Webster avenue, Thursday evening. She was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. James A. Willing, and Miss Ruby Howell. A most enjoyable time was spent by all present, among whom were: Anna Blow. Howison Doug-

Doctor Minges, Coltenbrink, Goodwin, Nave, Mac Cave, Doctor L. Tieman of Belleville, Ili., Harris, Boettler.

Mr. Ackerman of Sonnenfeld's left Sat-urday evening for New York to attend the millinery openings in that city.

on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at the Louisiana Hall, the first to take place on the 22d of September. The club is composed of Fred C. White, Jr., Ben F. Gray, L. G. Beauwais and W. S. Fitz Roy.

MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS.

Mr. Harry W. Trimp entertained friends with an opening dance Thursday evening at No. 1412 North Grand avenue. These in-formals will be held every Thursday evening throughout the winter.

Best Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's.

Mr. Joseph Heck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Heck, was surprised by his friends, in honor of his twenty-first birthday, last week. Music by the Tower Grove Mandolin Club contributed to the evening's pleasure. Those present were:

Margaret Kilcullen, Kate Kneever, Blanche Coorssen, of St. Louis, Lulu Herwick, Dalhia Seakotz, Kate Gobblemann, Anna Mealheir, Anna Mounk, Livie Metreer Mamie Fussner, Alvina Zutimann, Louisa Neadderberger, Ella Gemming,
Kate Gemming,
Hilda Scheer,
Anna Guich,
Mathilda Heck.

Lizzie Matzger Alma Stoufel, of St. Louis Charles Heck of St. Louis A. Leahr of Mascoutah J. Gemming. E. Fichniger. H. Winter, J. Kneever, Hetterhaus, J. Neadderberger, J. Backer, Vic Zuttmann, O. Zuttmann, E. Schiefferdacker, C. Hartman, Thomas Heck, R. Hartmon, Ed Lary.

Four trains a day, St. Louis to Cincin-nati, via Big Four. Parlor, sleeping, din-ing cars.

An enjoyable affair of the past week was a surprise party given to Mr. L. E. Alewel Wednesday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Vocal and piano selecbeing his birthday. Vocal and plano selec-tions were rendered. Dancing was la-dulged in, after which an eleborate repast was served. Mr. Alewel was presented with a handsome pair of cuff buttons amid a basket of American beauty roses by the Cosmos Club. The Bethania choir presented him with an umbrella. Those present were: Mesteurs and Mesdames— Alewel. Silverman.

Messicurs and Mess Alewel, Messicurs— Arnold Saxer, Gus Saxer, Louis Saxer, William Kniep, Ed Kniep,

Silverman, Jack Cornelius, Herman Puls. F. W. J. H. Heitman, Ed F. Stockho,

William Kampmeinert. Anna Messman,

Misses Amanda Schulte. Anna Shulte, Emma Kamp-Clara Brewer, Anna Rink, Millie Alewel. Lilly Kamp-Clara Alewei Pauline Mueller.

Cut Glass, 15 per cent discount, Mermod & Jaccard's. Mrs. Andreas Schlosser of New Albany, Ind., and Mrs. Aug. Volz of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Val Knapp, No. 250 St. Vincent avenue.

The Misses Eleanor and Pauline' Buetell returned home Tuesday after a visit with relatives in Louisville, Ky.

An excellent opportunity to invest your savings in 5 per cent gold bonds is of-fered by the Germania Trust Company on page 11. Part I. The most beautiful trains are those of the Big Four to New York and Boston. Miss Helen Healy of Lafayette avenue has returned from a visit at Colorado Springs and Manitou. En route home she visited at the "Healy Farm" and Miss Stella Boschert of Bunceton, Mo.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hall Clocks, 15 per cent discount, at Miss Annie Laurie of No. 2211 Morgan street has returned from a summer's so-journ at the Colorado resorts.

Miss Dorothea Beiding has been en-rolled for a complete course in the Loret-to Academy at Webster.

Miss Genevieve Glynn of Cook avenue has returned home, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. W. Hardesty, of Springfield, Mo., where she has been since the early part of June. Mrs. Robert J. Schwartz has returned home, after a month's visit to her sister, Mrs. H. Moral Materson, of Cleveland, O.

Miss Estelle Mackey of Palmyra, Mo., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ayres, at No. 3MG Lucas avenue.

Mrs. G. M. Pedero and son, George B. Gerhard, of No. 1893 Rutger street, departed Saturday evening for Indianapolis, Ind., where they will visit friends and relatives.

Miss Sadie Albertson has returned from a trip East. She has been spending the last month with Miss Ethel Capen and other friends in New York and Shelter Island. Morning, Noon and Night, Big Four trains leave St. Louis for Cincinnati.

Doctor and Mrs. G. C. Lyda have moved into their own home, No. 4523 Page boule-

Mrs. F. Bierman has returned home, after an extended trip through Europe, New York and Niagara Falls, Dinner Sets, 29 per cent discount, at Mermod & Jaccard's, Mts. Robert A. Ferry and her two children have returned from the Michigan resorts.

Among the St. Louis visitors who have arrived at Atlantic City during the week are Miss M. Goldman, who is making a short stay at the Royal Palace; Mr. and Mrs. E. Russell, who are registered at the Runnymede; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Low, at the Dennis, and E. Hoberg and E. E. Schoeny are at the Berkeley.

Mrs. Edward Beckmann and her daugh-ter, Miss Julia Beckmann, have just re-turned from an extended tour through California and on the Pacific Coast. Miss

MRS. JOHN D. HOPKINS ON HER FAVORITE MOUNT, BEAUTY. MRS. HOPKINS IS AN EXCELLENT EQUESTRIENNE AND RIDES CONSTANTLY THIS AUTUMN WEATHER. SHE PREFERS THE DI-VIDED SKIRT AND RIDES ASTRIDE.

Frank Alewel. Louis Alewel. John Rink. Beckmann will resume her studies at Mary Institute.

Miss Nanka Faucette has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Eureka Springs, Ark.

Mrs. Laura Fausette Vogel of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting her niece, Mrs. Osey Austin of No. 303 Washington ave-

Mrs. Tom C. Evans is visiting in Scran-Opera Glasses, 29 per cent discount, at Mermod & Jaccard's.

Colonial Cafe, Grand and Morgan, for indies and gentlemen. Catering, Gus Voight, formerly of Planters. Schubert's String Quartette.

Doctor and Nrs. H. N. Spencer have re-turned from their summer vacation, Doctor R. C. Harris and Doctor J. Coyle have just returned from s' weeks' outing in Northern Wisconsin. James A. Rice and Miss Eugenia Rice of No. 2520 Garfield avenue, who departed Friday on an extended trip, will visit the principal cities of the East.

Miss Dontan of No. 2511 Dodier street visit with her aunt, Mrs. P. E. Clarity, at St. Cloud, Minn.

WEBSTER GROVES.

Mrs. M. W. Warren entertained with cards Friday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Edson.

Mrs. Alfred Lee, Sr., and Miss Mary Lee have moved from Maplewood back to Webster.

Mrs. H. C. Watrous returned from Windsor Locks. Conn., Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Rhodes returned Wednesday from a visit to Minneapolis.

Mrs. J. W. Buchaman and daughtern. Mary and Ellen, of Grenada, Miss., returned home Wednesday, after a visit of several weaks to Mr. and Mrs. Hart Hood.

Will Bell, Henry Schuyler, Lyman Waren and Herbert Baker will attend

ets for Reducing Corpules and Lengthening the Waist. PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED.

Prices, $1.00 to $25.00.

Our Down= Town Branch

513 Locust Street is now open

Down-Town Phones Bell, Main 1408 Kinloch, D 81

Factory Phones: Bell, Beaumont 205 Kinloch, D 1807

WE cordially invite an inspection of our New Store and Engraving Plant.

we carry.....

fine Leather Goods, Crane's Dapers, Society, Office and Commercial Stationery, Carbon Dapers. Topewriter Ribbons and Oils.

We employ the most skilled engravers and printers to be obtained in our Engraving and Steel Die Embossing Department.

Card Index and filing Cabinets.

Samples of our work furnished upon application. Mail orders promptly filled.

Our Manufacturing Establishment will remain at Locust and Twenty-first Streets.

> Lambert=Deacon=Bull Printing Co.

Stationers, Engravers and Printers. Saint Louis.

THOSE NEW LONG-COAT SUITS. Bella Colonna. The Kyoto Ciub will inaugurate its season of dances at the Louisiana Hall, on October 2 Invitations have been issued for the same. The members are Michael Hesse, Marc Jacobson, Al Mann and Geo. P. Paulson. Wedding Gifts-Mermod & Jaccard's. The Manchester Club has organized for the coming season. The members are well known in the West End and will give a dancing party some time in the near fu-ture. The members are as follows:

ture. The members a Messleurs—
Leo Dierberger.
J. H. Doering.
Edw. M. Schaefer.
William Stumpp.
Otto Bermelkamp.
G. H. Schirr.
F. W. Bauer.
W. G. Schirr.
H. Hendricks, brey, Jr.,
A. W. Stumpp,
H. Stumpp,
William Garrett,
Charles Ruxell,
Charles Philips.

Mme. Downing-Mackiin School of Opera and Voice Building. Studio, The Odeon. The "Savannah Owis" were entertained on Tuesday evening by Miss Molloy of Lucky street. Vocal selections were rendered by Messrs. Fred Utley, William Kennedy and Mr. Hoffman; plano solos by Misses Ella Muller, Harriett Arwott.

Those present were:

Messicure

MISS EMILIE EPPELSHEIMER.

Who has just returned, after four years study of vocal music in Europe, under the best Parisian and German masters.

Marchesi and Numa Auguez of the Paris Opera, and Mme. Eteika Gerster, in Berlin, were among her teachers, Miss Eppelsheimer is said to have an admirable voice and an attractive personality

Germania Trust Company's announce-ment on page II, Part I, is of special in-terest to you for safe investment of your Silk Umbrellas. 29 per cent discount, at dermod & Jaccard's.

The Fleur de Lis Musical and Dramatic Club held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Bessie Musick last week. This club has decided to give its first informal at Odeon October 23. Those present were:

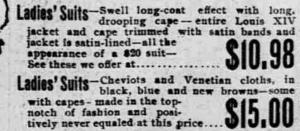

Edward Musick, Robert Ellis, Elmer Brown,

Misses— Bessie Musick. Pauline Jones.

Jack Connors, Fred Utley, Wm. Kennedy,

The I. V. C. Club will give a series

AND EFFECTS - A DISPLAY WITHOUT AN EQUAL IN ST. LOVIS.

with capes - made in the top-notch of fashion and posi-tively never equaled at this price ... $15.00 Ladies' Suits - Magnificent long-coat suits - made in | sired - $10 values, | mannish effect from those fashion- | Monday special at able rough mixed fabrics-a variety of the newest military and blouse effects-

the acme of elegance-un-

WALKING SKIRTS.

Two Great Specials for Monday. Instep Skirts-Every stitch mantailored - made from eleganit rough suitings with heavy welt seems - that swagger made-to-order

$7.50

Instep Skirts-A great line of man tailored skirts—made from men's suiting fabrics, in black, blue and those rich browns—correct length and fitting with exceptional style and $4.98